Why do you want to become an Ambassador for Renewed Strength Ministries?

---

What kind of training or education do you currently have regarding sex trafficking? Also, specifically about boys?

---

---

This is a very personal question, but have you or anyone you know been a victim of sex trafficking? If yes, please only share what you are comfortable with. Also, how has that made an impact on your life?

Duties of an Ambassador are as follows:

- To represent Renewed Strength Ministries throughout the community
- To uphold our organizations core values
- To educate others about human trafficking, and specifically the sex trafficking of young males
- To encourage others to join us in our mission to provide care and services to young males

All applicants will have to go through a background screening for security purposes. Once your application is reviewed and accepted, we will contact you to set up that process. There is a minimal charge for that screening. Thank you again for having the desire to join us in our crusade to educate our communities.
